

ACCIDENTAL SHOT
KILLS STRICKLAND

Looser Superintendent Was Handling Pistol in Bathroom of Home.

Daniel Strickland, superintendent of Frederick Looser & Co., Brooklyn, was found in the bathroom of his apartment at 52 Pierrepont street yesterday with a bullet wound in the right side of his head. He was pronounced dead by Dr. Fomer of the Long Island College Hospital.

Mr. Strickland, with his wife and son, Daniel, Jr., were preparing to visit a married daughter who lives in Boston. Mrs. Strickland was in the dining room on the ground floor, while her husband and son were on the fourth floor. The son was in his room packing a suit case when he heard a shot. He ran to the bathroom and found his father on the floor and the pistol close to him. Mr. Strickland was dressed in a pair of trousers and shirt, and alongside the bathtub was an open handbag containing toilet articles. The revolver, according to the story told the police by the members of the family, was kept in a cabinet in the bathroom, and it was necessary for Mr. Strickland to step on the edge of the tub to reach the weapon. Police Captain Roush and Patrolman Gleason are of the belief Mr. Strickland slipped on the edge of the bathtub after securing the revolver and that it was discharged accidentally while he was struggling to recover his balance. Mr. Strickland was 54 years of age. He leaves besides his widow and son, Daniel, Jr., another son and two daughters. An automobile which was to take the Stricklands to the railroad depot was standing outside the door when the shooting took place. On the table in the living room of the apartment was a telegram from Mr. Strickland's daughter reading: "All preparations made. Expect you Saturday. MARTHA."

CARMANIA CARRIES 1,125.

The Cunard liner Carmania sailed yesterday for Liverpool with 1,125 passengers, including Sir Joseph Flavelle, a Canadian financier, and Lady Flavelle, Sir Arthur Newsholme, K. C. B., medical officer of London, and Lady Newsholme; Capt. W. M. Hannay and Dr. Bashford Dean, curator of arms and armor at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TIFFANY REFEREE
FAVORS A DIVORCE

Finds Evidence of Dancing
Teacher's Wavering Affection.

In a report filed yesterday in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, Thomas E. Brownlee, referee in the suit for divorce brought by Harrison A. Tiffany, who resides at the Hotel St. George, against Agnes M. Tiffany, recommends that a decree be given to the plaintiff. Edward J. Fanning, counsel for Mr. Tiffany, will move Thursday to have the referee's report confirmed.

Mr. Tiffany is connected with the Atlantic Stevedoring Company, Inc., and the Barber Steamship Company. He is 32 years of age. Mrs. Tiffany is two years his junior. She is an instructress in the William Pitt Rivers Dancing Academy, on Church avenue, Flatbush. They were married June 28, 1913, at Manchester, Vt. They have no children. Stanley H. Bass, who lives at the Mansion House, on Hicks street, and is well known in the automobile trade, was named as correspondent by Mr. Tiffany. The misconduct complained of is said to have taken place in the Pennsylvania Hotel in May, 1920.

Mrs. Tiffany made a general denial of the charges. The strongest evidence were letters couched in endearing terms that passed between Mrs. Tiffany and Mr. Bass. There is pending a suit brought by Mr. Tiffany against Mr. Bass for $50,000 for alienation of his wife's affections and one by Mr. Bass in which he demands $25,000 damages for injuries inflicted upon him by Mr. Tiffany as the result of an argument which began at one of the hearings before the referee.

POLICE ORGAN APPEARS.

The first issue of The Bulletin, a monthly publication which is to be the official organ of the metropolitan police district, came off the presses yesterday. The metropolitan police district, formed recently by Commissioner Enright, comprises all towns in a radius of 150 miles of New York.

The twelve pages of The Bulletin are filled with articles of general interest to police officers. There is a special article
